Health is very important nowadays. We ^{do not} move (not) much, because we sit in our schools, universities, offices and at home, while watching TV-shows, ~~or~~ reading our favourite book or playing computer games.

You should keep your body in focus since teen ages because it would be better to do sports ~~in~~ when you're young than pay for your health, when you will be a grown up. Then you'll have to go to the doctors, buy tablets, vitamins and other pills that will need you

There are a lot of kinds of sport, so you can choose any you want. For example, running, jumping, swimming, dancing, fighting etc. Everyone have their Physical Education at school and I think it's so cool, because you can train with your friends and classmates.

As for me, I go to the GYM three times a week: at Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday. I go there ~~&~~ with my friend and I love these days so much, because we can have a lot of fun while making our bodies healthy.

There is one more way to have sports that everyone must definitely like. It's ~~travelling~~ travelling. You can see a lot of beauty of the world, when you ~~can~~ ^{will} climb the Everest, for example. You can go anywhere on foot and it will be a kind of sport too.
