Health and Fitness are the best ways to keep in good form. A lot of people are carry and because of it they always lay on the sofa and have problems with the health, because when you are so fat it is big pressure to your heart and organs.

In social life sport ~~or~~ deserve a special mention. A lot of companies are trying to solve the problem of fat and recruit people only with good physique.

Especially health and fitness; important to encourage in the age of 14-18 your organism very strong and a lot of disease doesn't touch you. But if you are too carry or have the wrong way of life in this ages you might have a lot of trouble in the age of 30.

For example you always fall asleep at 1:00 PM and wake up at 6:00 PM. You will be ok but later when you'll become older and older you will always have headache.

Also ~~the~~ ^{most of} teenagers wants to be better than others and strong body is the one of the ways in which they're competing maybe if you are fat some kids or even no one won't communicate with you.

As for me sport one of the most important things not only for teenagers but ~~for~~ for adults too. It helps to be strong, healthy, beautiful and smart, because in the healthy body healthy soul. So I always do exercise and going to swimming pool.
