Essay

It is believed that a lot of people today decide to change their jobs or places of living. Is it a positive or negative thing? In this essay I will try to look upon this issue.³⁵

In my opinion, this development is positive. Firstly, a person can become more successful in his new role than he was in his old one.

Secondly, it is good to change an atmosphere because you can get new experience meeting new people.⁴²

Others believe that changing places is a negative thing. First of all, you might will not like the weather and the climate of this place. Secondly, there is a change that you will not find a new work or a flat.⁴⁰

I cannot agree with this opinion because if ^athe person wants to change the place of living, he will check everything about the new place. What about finding new place of living or work, there are a lot of apps and sites on the Internet which help to find a place of work and a flat.⁵⁶

To conclude, there are two different opinions but I think that changing places is a positive development because you can find something new for yourself and become more successful.²⁹
