Assignment ?

Libraries appeared long before electricity and Internet were invented. It was the only way to get information back then. It wasn't ~~so~~ very comfortable, ~~cause information in books can be old and not really useful.~~ For example, you need to write a report about a tiny country. You don't have information about it in your student book, so you go to the library. You read a huge pile of books ~~and~~ seeking for the information. Not really ~~com~~ <sup>fast</sup> comfortable, right?

Now we have Internet where we can find any ~~info~~ <sup>thing</sup> we want in a moment. So, Why do we have libraries? Some people go there because ~~of the atmosphere~~ <sup>still</sup> they don't have Internet, ~~or just like books.~~ ~~In~~ by the way, I go to the library because there is quiet. What a perfect place to do your homework! ~~and read your own book!~~

Obviously, most people prefer Internet, but there are people, who ~~are~~ <sup>visiting</sup> the libraries regularly. In ~~the~~ <sup>my</sup> future ~~not~~ there won't be ~~major~~ <sup>major</sup> changes.

It's your own ~~best~~ choice between Internet and books. In my opinion, none of them is bad.
