I think that this statement is right. Every person had childhood and he has some good things from it. Every child must go to school and help parents. You don't need to work at the job. Children have a lot of free time to play or do what they want. They have many friends to play with. And in childhood children are interested in many ways. That is why I think that childhood is the greatest or happiest time of ~~a~~ every person's life. And I ^{now} ~~am~~ a teenager and I remember my childhood
