I think that childhood is the happiest time of a person's life. Because when you are a child you haven't got any serious problems, you play different games, speak with your friends in a real life, you have a good time. But when you become older and older you're tired and think about bad things, you have a lot of problems and nobody can help you, nobody can listen to you.

When you're a child you're the happiest person, you have all what you want. And I think, childhood is very short but one of the important moments of our lives!
