Childhood is the happiest time of a person's life.

I agree with that statement, and there is a lot of reasons why and what should people think about it in such a lovely way.

Firstly, we never paid attention for bad moments, for difficult situations and problems of adults. You don't even care how ~~many~~ and why you'll get free time, what work you have to do and etc. The only thing that you worry about - when will your favourite animation show up on a TV screen.

When you were young - you were able to spend time by playing, walking with friends, don't even need to think a lot and study hardly. Every problems and wishes were a thing, that your parents always make instead of you.

And in my opinion - childhood is a period without any troubles, full of warm and happy moments.
